GEBARD to replace M. LEMAIRE as French Representative. The Courrier d'Haiphong asserts that both these Ministers will refuse to comply with the 9.60 humiliating obligation of presenting their letters of credence outside the Imperial Palace or to enter the Palace by any inferior door. We sincerely hope that this assertion is well founded, that Mr. Lemaire who is now on his way home, has left Peking. without bumiliating himself and his country, and that his successor, M. GERAED, will resolutely decline to follow the disastrous example of the English and Austrian Representatives. Our Tonkin contemporary pertinently asks:-"But will the representatives of the European Powers continue to be divided into two camps, the Ministers of France while applications at pur only received to per and Russia unwilling to surrender a point of ctiquette affecting the national dignity, while the Ministers of England, of Germany, of Belgium, and their colleagues submit to the arrogant caprice of the Commissioner and will probably the N. C. Tsung-li Yamen? Will this abunrmal situation be prolonged. The Courrier action on the part of the Treaty Powers, the success of which, it believes, would be rapid and certain. PRONINCIATION. An Anglo-Chinese Dictionary, published at the Daily Press Office, Hengkong. For comprehensiveness and practical service this Work stands unrivalled. All the new words which the Chinese have of latey ears been compelled to coin to express the numerous objects in machinery, photography, telegraphy, and in science generally, which the rapid advance [Farnished or Unfurnished]. Five Good of foreign relations has imposed upon them, are here given in estenso. Each and every word is fully illustrated and explained, forming exproses for atudents of a most instructive nature. Both the Court and Punti pronunciations are given the accounts being carefully marked on the best principle hitherto attain L The typography displays the success of an obsempt to make the Chinese and English type correspond in the size of body, thereby offenting a vast sconomy of supere behieving a clearnest not previously and vacant spaces which have heretofore charactorized Chinese publications. To illustrate the vast scope of the work the following facts are submitted for consideration :-Chalmers Vocabulary contains about 16,000 Chinase, obsessors, and Medhurst's English 1676 and Chinese Dictionary about 100,000, whilst this work contains more than 50,000 English words, and news is of 600,000 Chinese characters Again, despite all the grammare and other alementary works as yet published, the student of this difficult lauruage absolutely requires examples to display the various appliestions and equivalents of different words which have one general meaning. Of these examples this work contains more than five times as many as say other Dictionary hitherto pub-For practical purposes the arrangement of the work is so complete, that a reference to its POOMS on the Upper Floor, and lots pages enables a person who understands English
